WILL SUPPORT MAT TOURNEY

Local Fans Believe Wrestling Game the Anti-Socialist pienie at South Range next Sunday. Practically ev-Will Come Back

Local fans of the wrestling game are greatly in favor of the proposed international mat which is slated for this c.t) next November, according to a matement of two of the promoters today. Since the early announcement of the match by several of the promoters the eneral discussion among the bugs UNDERTAKING MORE LARGELY has been whether or not the wrestling game will come back to its own. There sas a time when wrestling was one of the most popular sports in this district and the majority feel that nothing will bring it back to par as will the international tourney proposed by Hancock men.

The idea is to bring several of the best known wrestlers of this country Sampson, Groundlund, Americus and well known by followers of the game and as yet their supremacy is cided once and for all should such a would have an opportunity to witness traveling miles to see,

I can see no reason why the tourof the promotern. "We have long been waltime for any opportunity, to witness some of the greatest wrestlers in action and this would give everyone a sured that local fans will support the that church united with the Houghtearney, and in fact, many have already made inquiries to that end."

STATE'S ATTORNEY CONFIRMS SUPREME COURT DECISION

COUNTY CLERK KAISER GETS OFFICIAL NOTIFICATION ON SECOND DISTRICT.

A request for definite information as to the recent railing of the state supreme court, relative to the reapportionment of legislative districts Saturday resulted in the receipt by Coun y Clerk Kaiser of the following teleram from Assistant Attorney General ougherty:

"The representative districts of Houghton county should remain as they were organized by the board of upervisors under the act of 1905. The board has no authority to reapportion the county under the invalid act of 1915."

This announcement settles on interesting political subject that has been before the people of the copper country and it substantiates a story published in The News, Under the Public acts of 1913 the county board of supervisors trict, with a view to equalizing the ote of the second and third district. The supreme court's decision nullifles

Another result of the decision is the nullifying of the nomination petitions of two Hancock candidates for the legslature. As they were candidates from the second district, their petitions carried the names of voters from Hancock city, while the decision virresidents of the third district.
